May 31 to June 9, 2016

D-Day Normandy
Land of Liberty
Dear Graduates, Parents and Friends of Brown:

Experience the rich traditions and astonishing beauty of Normandy’s storied coastline and the British Isles during this once-in-a-lifetime Celtic Lands voyage. By exclusive arrangement, walk the hallowed D-Day beaches of Normandy, France, with Dwight David Eisenhower II, grandson of General and President Dwight D. Eisenhower, and meet Lord Charles Spencer-Churchill, cousin of British Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill. Both Professor Eisenhower and Lord Spencer-Churchill will join us for a portion of the cruise to lecture and share their personal insights about two of the most influential figures of the 20th century.

From the coast of France to the British Isles, our Celtic Lands itinerary explores the lands and seas traversed by the Iron Age tribes known as the Celts along with their enduring influence and the captivating historical legacies of more recent times. Their immeasurable contributions to the culture of Europe’s civilizations are surrounded in mystery, legend and folklore and rooted in a wealth of art, science and mythology.

Cruise across the English Channel and into the waters of the Celtic and Irish Seas aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star, Small Ship M.S. Le Boreal, featuring only 110 Suites and Staterooms, to explore cities, villages and islands that abound with living Celtic heritage, calling at ports inaccessible to larger vessels.

View the treasures of Celtic heritage in Dublin, Ireland, and follow in the footsteps of medieval and modern princes in North Wales. Discover Scotland’s misty, legend-haunted and seldom-visited Inner Hebridean Islands; admire the austere beauty of the Scottish Highlands aboard The Jacobite steam train, better recognized as Harry Potter’s Hogwarts™ Express, “one of the great railway journeys of the world”; and call on the majestic Isle of Skye, where the traditional Gaelic language is still spoken today.

We will share this departure with alumni and friends from Columbia, Georgetown and Northwestern Universities. This extraordinary visit to the historic D-Day beaches of Normandy, where Allied forces turned the tides of World War II, and the Celtic Lands of Scotland and Ireland has proved to be an extremely popular program that sells out quickly. We encourage you to reserve now as space is limited!

Sincerely,

Beth Goldman Galer ’88

“...No place overseas holds more significance for Americans and Canadians than the landing sites for the Normandy invasion on D-Day, June 6, 1944. Sharing the insights of my grandfather, Dwight Eisenhower, and walking these hallowed grounds where our allied troops, in his words, successfully assured ‘the elimination of Nazi tyranny ... and security for ourselves in a free world,’ was a personal highlight. This Celtic Lands travel program is indeed a cruise rich in history, set amid the breathtaking beauty of the British Isles and the Normandy coastlines.”

–David Eisenhower,
June 2014
The Celts, whose civilization spanned two thousand years, had no written history, no written language and no prevailing ethnic unity. They never built an empire nor founded a centralized state, yet at the height of their power, in the third century B.C., the Celts’ domain extended from the Iberian Peninsula to the Black Sea and from the Mediterranean Sea to the North Sea. Today, the Celts are most associated with the heritage, cultural identity and national consciousness of Ireland, although their roots run deep in England, Wales, Scotland and Normandy, France, where Celtic dialects formed the original languages.

U.S./Paris, France/Honfleur
Tuesday and Wednesday, May 31 and June 1
Depart the U.S. for Paris. On arrival, transfer to Honfleur and embark the Five-Star M.S. LE BORÉAL.

Eisenhower and on Operation Overlord, the Allies’ code name for the World War II military campaign his grandfather launched for the D-Day airborne and amphibious invasion at Normandy.

Caen/Normandy Beaches
Thursday, June 2
Dock in Caen and travel through the scenic countryside to the historic Normandy beaches. In the company of Dwight David Eisenhower II, walk where Allied forces landed on June 6, 1944, under the direction of his world-renowned grandfather, Supreme Allied Commander, Dwight D. Eisenhower. Contemplate the solemn commemorative crosses and Stars of David in the American Military Cemetery at Colleville-sur-Mer overlooking Omaha Beach. Envision the heroic soldiers of the United States Army Second Ranger Battalion, who scaled the 100-foot sheer cliffs to capture German gun emplacements at Pointe du Hoc.

Following lunch, continue to Arromanches to see the remnants of Mulberry Harbor, constructed by the British to support Allied landings on the Normandy beaches. View exhibits chronicling the campaign at the D-Day Museum overlooking Gold Beach; alternatively, you may choose to see the famous 230-foot-long Bayeux Tapestry, a stunning visual chronicle of the Norman Conquest of 1066.
This evening, attend the Captain’s Welcome Reception and dinner.

Holyhead, Wales/ Caernarfon Castle
Sunday, June 5

From Holyhead, transfer across the diminutive Isle of Anglesey and over the Menai Strait to North Wales, one of the cradles of Celtic culture. Here, the people hold fast to the old ways and Welsh remains their mother tongue.

Visit beautiful Bodnant Garden, one of the finest examples of 19th-century Victorian landscape artistry. Stop in the charming seaside resort town of Llandudno for lunch, followed by a stirring private choir performance of Welsh hymns.

Tour the imposing Caernarfon Castle, an impenetrable 13th-century fortress built by Edward I of England as a defense against the marauding Welsh. Following tradition of seven centuries of monarchs, Queen Elizabeth II invested the future heir to the British throne, her son Charles, as “Prince of Wales” at Caernarfon in 1969.

Enjoy views of the beautiful, glacier-sculpted peaks and valleys of the Snowdonia Mountains on your return to the ship.

After free time, visit the 13th-century Duart Castle, the ancestral home of the Clan Maclean, and enjoy lunch in the castle’s tea room.

Ferry across the Sound of Iona to the neighboring Hebridean Isle of Iona, birthplace of Scottish Christianity. In A.D. 563, the Irish monk Columba founded a monastery here, where scribes would spend their entire lives painstakingly copying and illuminating religious tracts and transcribing ancient Celtic sagas into written form, preserving a record of oral bardic tradition. In later years, Iona became the burial place of Scotland’s kings, including Duncan and Macbeth. At Iona Abbey, stroll through the serene, restored monastery and see the churchyard’s intricate Celtic crosses.

Lord Charles Spencer-Churchill will present a lecture about his cousin, the legendary British Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill, on board the ship this evening.
Skye, dubbed “the Winged Island” after its birdlike shape, is the largest and one of the most scenic of the Inner Hebrides. Visit Armadale Castle’s spectacular 17th-century gardens and learn about the powerful reign of Clan Donald, Lords of the Isles until 1493.

In Kyle of Lochalsh, visit the 13th-century Eilean Donan Castle, named for a sixth-century Irish saint and one of the most iconic castles in the world.

Mallaig/The Jacobite steam train (Hogwarts™ Express)/Fort William/Scottish Highlands/Oban

This morning, board The Jacobite steam train—immortalized as The Hogwarts™ Express in the Harry Potter film series—for “one of the great railway journeys of the world” through awe-inspiring natural landscapes from Mallaig near Loch Nevis, the deepest seawater loch in Europe. Ride past Loch and River Morar to Fort William in the shadow of Ben Nevis, the highest mountain in the British Isles. After lunch, depart for Oban and travel along the verdant shores of Loch Linnhe. Enjoy the splendor of majestic Glencoe, most of which is owned and preserved by the National Trust for Scotland, and see Rannoch Moor, one of the last remaining wildernesses in Europe. In the heart of the highlands, see Loch Awe, featuring views of the striking Kilchurn Castle, and the picturesque Pass of Brander.
