Class of '74 Schedule

Friday, May 22

Noon – 10:30 p.m.

Registration under the tent in Wriston Quadrangle (through Wayland Arch across the street from Maddock Alumni Center). Wriston Quad

4:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

Class Welcome Reception. Enjoy a delicious assortment of hors d'oeuvres and an open bar offering beer, wine, soda and water in our Class Headquarters in Alpha Epsilon Pi Lounge (Marcy House). Compliments of the University. Class Headquarters

7:00 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.

Class Dinner. You won't believe your eyes when you enter our grand tent in front of Rhode Island Hall. This festive event begins with cocktails and hors d'oeuvres and continues with a succulent buffet. Please use our special 35th Reunion entrance at the corner of George and Magee streets for easy access. Front Green Tent – Rhode Island Hall

9 p.m. – 1 a.m.

Campus Dance. One of Brown's best-loved Reunion Weekend traditions, the Campus Dance brings more than 11,000 people to campus to dance the night away under a sky lit with hundreds of paper lanterns. The College Green is transformed into an outdoor ballroom with a giant dance floor for swinging to the sounds of the Duke Belaire Orchestra. Lincoln Field is set for the young at heart with two of Brown's student bands.

During the Dance, beverage tokens may be purchased in the Blue Room in Faunce House or behind Wilson Hall on upper Lincoln Field. New this year: in the reunion section near Hope College, there will be cocktail service as well as a special boxed dessert for purchase. The College Green

Saturday, May 23

7:00 a.m. – 9:30 a.m.

Continental Breakfast in our Class Headquarters. All are welcome, whether you are staying on campus or not — a great way to meet classmates and start your day. Compliments of the University. Class Headquarters

7:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Registration under the tent on Wriston Quad for late arrivals. Wriston Quad

8:30 a.m.

Alumni All-Class Memorial Service. Join classmates and fellow alumni for this meaningful ceremony. Each reunion class will have a representative to honor the memory of those who have departed our midst since our last reunion. University Chaplain Janet Cooper Nelson will officiate. Sayles Hall

9:30 a.m.

Alumni Hour with the President. Hear President Ruth J. Simmons discuss the Plan for Academic Enrichment and the latest developments at Brown. Lincoln Field

11 a.m. – noon

Alumni Reunion Forum – Riding the Rapids: Career Management in Today's Economy. The crisis in the global economy has impacted thousands around the world, including members of the Brown alumni family. Join us for a panel discussion of seasoned alumni recruiters, journalists and bloggers to hear their thoughts, insights and suggestions for effective career management in these challenging times.

Panelists include: Scott Harris '74, executive vice president/co-managing director, DHR International; Rahsan Lindsay '94, account manager, MTV Networks; Hannah Seligson '04, journalist and author. Moderator: Vicky Oliver, author. W. Duncan MacMillan Hall, Room 115

Alumni Reunion Forum – The 1968 Walkout: A Turning Point in Brown's History. On December 5, 1968, African American students at Brown and Pembroke colleges left campus to protest what they saw as a lack of University support for black students. Forty years later, alumni who participated in the five-day demonstration reflect on their experience as Brown students during the Civil Rights Movement and discuss how far we've come over the past 40 years. Panelists include: Sandra Crew '71, P'00, P'04, former administrator, Howard County Public School System; Dean Dent '74, P'09, anesthesiologist, Morristown Memorial Hospital; Ken McDaniel '69, P'13, former EEO manager, Naval Underwater Warfare College Division (retired); Theodore Sherrod '69, administrative law judge, The State of Illinois. Moderator: Spencer Crew '71, P'00, P'04, Robinson Professor of Humanities, George Mason University. Salomon Center for Teaching, Room 001

Noon – 3 p.m.

Class Lunch, Meeting, and Seminar.

Reminisce with classmates as you enjoy a delightful lunch. Share memories of our days at Brown during this time reserved for us.

Class Seminar – Perspectives on Peace in Afghanistan: A Journalist's View.

Pamela Constable '74 is a deputy foreign editor at The Washington Post and has covered South Asia since 1999, with extensive coverage of Afghanistan as well as both India and Pakistan, first as the South Asian bureau chief and then as Kabul bureau chief from 2002 to 2004. She is currently on an extended reporting assignment in Afghanistan and will be returning to the United States to join us for our reunion. Pam is in a unique position to share her real-time insights on the future prospects for peace in this conflict-torn corner of the world.

She will have copies of her book, Fragments of Grace: My Search for Meaning in the Strife of South Asia, available at the seminar for those who would like to purchase it and have it signed. Pembroke Field Tent

3:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

NEW Alumni Reunion Forums. Explore the experience, knowledge and expertise of the Brown alumni community in these alumni-to-alumni forums. See the full schedule for details.

7:30 p.m.

Class Photo. Please plan on being part of this memorable photo, whether you plan to purchase a copy or not. Lincoln Field

7:30 p.m. – 11:00 p.m.

Class Dinner. Join classmates and friends under a spacious tent in one of Brown's newest and most unique outdoor spaces. Enjoy a New England-style clambake and entertainment by The Revolutionary Snake Ensemble led by our own Ken Field '74. This special event is sure to be the highlight of the weekend! Lincoln Field Tent

Sundown (approx. 8:30 p.m.) – midnight

NEW WaterFire Providence. Ninety-seven bonfires hover above the surface of the river and thread through the half-mile of downtown Providence's Waterplace Park. Enjoy this spectacular award-winning multimedia fire installation created by artist and alumnus Barnaby Evans '75. Sponsored by Brown University's Commencement and Reunion offices. Downtown Providence

Sunday, May 24

7 a.m. – 9 a.m.

NEW Pre-Commencement Procession Breakfast. All are welcome! Get energized for the day with a complete hot breakfast buffet. Choose from pancakes, eggs, home fries, fruit, muffins, cereal, coffee, juice, and lots more. If you did not register for this breakfast, you may purchase full-price tickets at the door. Sharpe Refectory

9 a.m.

Commencement Procession. One of Brown's oldest and greatest traditions, the Commencement Procession brings together the entire Brown community. This is pure excitement and nostalgia — don't miss your chance to march through the Van Wickle Gates behind our 35th Reunion banner. New this year, classes will be lining up for the procession beginning on the path in front of University Hall and continuing past Rhode Island Hall onto George Street — be sure to look for our 35th Reunion signs and student staff member near Rhode Island Hall. The College Green

Noon – 2:30 p.m.

NEW Alumni Grab 'n' Go Lunch. After your return up the Hill, grab lunch as Reunion Weekend comes to an end. The extended hours at your class headquarters will allow you to enjoy the company of your classmates or, if weather permits, have an impromptu picnic on campus. If you did not register for this lunch, you may purchase full-price tickets at the door. Sharpe Refectory
