Class of '84 Schedule

Friday, May 22

Noon – 10:30 pm

Registration under the tent in Wriston Quadrangle (through Wayland Arch across the street from Maddock Alumni Center).

Wriston Quad

4 p.m. – 6 p.m.

Class Welcome Reception. Ring in the reunion at the Class of '84 Headquarters, Arnold Lounge in Keeney Quad (West Quad for us "old timers"!). Drop your bags and head over to get your first glimpse of all your long-lost friends — and to meet new ones. Hors d'oeuvres and beverages will be plentiful. Compliments of the University.

Class Headquarters

6:15 p.m.

Class Photo. Join us on the steps of the Rock! Please plan on being part of this memorable photo, whether you plan to purchase a copy or not. Rockefeller Library

6:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.

25th Reunion Gala Dinner and Campus

Dance. What better place to reconnect with all your old friends than at our sumptuous buffet dinner on Brown's Front Green, followed by the event we all remember, one of Brown's best-loved reunion traditions — Campus Dance? For this special reunion event, we will be joined by President Ruth J. Simmons, who will mingle and meet classmates at our exclusive tent located on the Front Green by Carrie Tower. Please use our special 25th Reunion entrance at the corner of George and Magee streets for easy access. Front Green Tent – Manning Hall

9 p.m. – 1 a.m.

Campus Dance. One of Brown's best-loved Reunion Weekend traditions, the Campus Dance brings more than 11,000 people to campus to dance the night away under a sky lit with hundreds of paper lanterns. The College Green is transformed into an outdoor ballroom with a giant dance floor for swinging to the sounds of the Duke Belaire Orchestra. Lincoln Field is set for the young at heart with two of Brown's student bands.

During the Dance, beverage tokens may be purchased in the Blue Room in Faunce House or behind Wilson Hall on upper Lincoln Field. New this year: in the reunion section near Hope College, there will be cocktail service as well as a special boxed dessert for purchase. The College Green

Saturday, May 23

7:00 a.m. – 9:30 a.m.

Continental Breakfast in our Class Headquarters. All are welcome, whether you are staying on campus or not — a great way to meet classmates and start your day.

Compliments of the University.

Class Headquarters

7:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Registration under the tent on Wriston Quad for late arrivals. Wriston Quad

8:30 a.m.

Alumni All-Class Memorial Service. Join classmates and fellow alumni for this meaningful ceremony. Each reunion class will have a representative to honor the memory of those who have departed our midst since our last reunion. University Chaplain Janet Cooper Nelson will officiate. Sayles Hall

9:30 a.m.

NEW

Alumni Hour with the President. Hear President Ruth J. Simmons discuss the Plan for Academic Enrichment and the latest developments at Brown. Lincoln Field

10:30 a.m. – noon

Teen Tour. This popular walking tour, led by current undergraduate students, promises to be interesting and fun for your teens even if they have previously visited Brown's campus. Tour steps off from Arnold Lounge and ends at the Class of '84 tent at Field Day. Please note that this event is for independent teens ONLY. Parents and younger children are asked to take advantage of the other great University and community events offered at this time. Compliments of the Class of '84. Class Headquarters

11 a.m. – noon

NEW

Alumni Reunion Forums. Explore the experience, knowledge and expertise of the Brown alumni community in these alumni-to-alumni forums. See the full schedule for details.

Noon – 3 p.m.

NEW

Alumni Field Day. Catch up with friends under our class tent at what promises to be the best Field Day ever! For lunch, bring your own or enjoy a hometown Rhode Island picnic of cold fried chicken and a variety of sliders including honey mustard chicken, pulled pork and vegetarian ragout alongside an array of picnic salads. Enjoy your picnic with lemonade and finish with famous Rhode Island doughboys. And don't forget to sample the assortment of beer, sangria, soda, and bottled water at the Field Day cash bar.

Expanded activity options include:

- Bruno Activities Zone for kids of all ages
- Soccer and rugby mini-clinics led by Brown players for 3-18 year olds
- Fencing demonstration led by the Brown fencing team for 5-18 year olds

- Whiffle ball, softball and kickball games for all ages
- Alumni rugby and softball games
- Photo opportunity with Bruno
- Magic show by Tommy James
- Musical performance by Dave Binder
- Complimentary ice cream

However you define fun, Alumni Field Day promises to be a fun-filled afternoon for everyone. Alumni Field Day is completely free with the exception of the picnic.

If you did not register for the picnic, you may purchase individual-only picnic tickets ($25 per person) at the Field Day gate. Follow signs near Olney-Margolies Athletic Center (OMAC) on Hope Street for access to Field Day. Pets and outside beverages are not allowed on the athletic fields. Erickson Athletic Complex Fields – rain or shine

3:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

NEW

Alumni Reunion Forum – Cue the Music: The Role of Music in Film & Television. Whether a commercial or soundtrack, headline concert or movie, music video or television series, music plays a significant role in many film and television productions. Seasoned alumni share their professional experiences within the music and entertainment industry and discuss their perspectives on the importance of music in various types of productions. Panelists include: Matt Hauser '89, composer, Big Foote Music; Stephen Hill '84, co-president of programming, BET; Clara Markowicz '94, co-founder, Original Media; Lee Rolontz '84, senior vice president, Original Music Production, VH1. W. Duncan MacMillan Hall, Starr Auditorium, Room 117

4:30 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.

Class of 1984's Film Festival. With so many creative classmates, it's no surprise that many '84 graduates found their way into the movie industry. Gwen Wynne '84, Director, Screenwriter, Producer and recent winner of the "Best of the Fest" at the 2009 Palm Springs International Film Festival will be participating in this festival along with other classmates. Drop by to enjoy excerpts of their work, celebrate their adventures and learn about their struggles to make it all happen. W. Duncan MacMillan Hall, Room 115

5:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Dinner on your own. Make your own plans for dinner with friends in restaurant-rich Providence.

8:30 p.m. – midnight

Class Party. Open Bar? Grad Center Bar? Oliver's? Remember our partying days? Relive some of those "golden moments" at the '84 Brunotini Lounge Party. Brunotini Lounge (aka Sayles Hall) will take on a whole new look as we convene for drinks (open bar), desserts, coffee and dancing with our own DJ. Exciting late-breaking addition: special performance by The GrooveBarbers (previously known as Rockapella) with classmates Sean Altman '84, Charlie Evett '84, and Steve Keyes '84 — presenting some favorite High Jinks tunes of our campus years, from "Man-'O-Man" to "Moondance" and more — don't miss it! Sayles Hall

Sundown (approx. 8:30 p.m.) – midnight

NEW

WaterFire Providence. Ninety-seven bonfires hover above the surface of the river and thread through the half-mile of downtown Providence's Waterplace Park. Enjoy this spectacular award-winning multimedia fire installation created by artist and alumnus Barnaby Evans '75. Sponsored by Brown University's Commencement and Reunion offices. Downtown Providence

Sunday, May 24

7 a.m. – 9 a.m.

NEW

Pre-Commencement Procession Breakfast.

All are welcome! Get energized for the day with a complete hot breakfast buffet. Choose from pancakes, eggs, home fries, fruit, muffins, cereal, coffee, juice, and lots more. If you did not register for this breakfast, you may purchase full-price tickets at the door. Sharpe Refectory

8 a.m. – 9 a.m.

25th Reunion Commencement Procession Kickoff Coffee Hour. Before you march down the Hill, take this last opportunity to hear from classmates and learn about all the amazing things old friends and new are doing. Light fare. Compliments of the Class of '84. Class Headquarters

9 a.m.

Commencement Procession. One of Brown's oldest and greatest traditions, the Commencement Procession brings together the entire Brown community. This is pure excitement and nostalgia – don't miss your chance to march through the Van Wickle Gates behind our 25th Reunion banner. New this year, classes will be lining up for the procession beginning on the path in front of University Hall and continuing past Rhode Island Hall onto George Street – be sure to look for our 25th Reunion signs and student staff member on George Street. The College Green

Noon – 2:30 p.m.

NEW

Alumni Grab 'n' Go Lunch. After your return up the Hill, grab lunch as Reunion Weekend comes to an end. The extended hours at your class headquarters will allow you to enjoy the company of your classmates or, if weather permits, have an impromptu picnic on campus. If you did not register for this lunch, you may purchase full-price tickets at the door. Sharpe Refectory
