Class of '94 Schedule

Friday, May 22

Noon – 10:30 p.m.

Registration under the tent in Wriston Quadrangle (through Wayland Arch across the street from Maddock Alumni Center).
Wriston Quad

5 p.m. – 7 p.m.

Class Welcome Reception. Welcome back '94! It's hard to believe that it has been 15 years. Kick off Reunion Weekend by joining us at our Class Headquarters, Tech House Lounge (Harkness House), for an exclusive Class of 1994 event. Hors d'oeuvres will be served along with beer, wine, soda, and water. See familiar faces and start remembering all the reasons you've come back to Brown. We can't wait to see you and celebrate 15 years post-graduation! Guests and children are welcome. Compliments of the University.
Class Headquarters

6 p.m. – 8 p.m.

NEW

Multicultural Alumni Committee (MAC) Reception. Continue the weekend with the Brown Alumni Association's Multicultural Alumni Committee (MAC) to celebrate the diversity of Brown's alumni community with our alumni affinity groups (Asian/Asian American Alumni Alliance, Brown University Latino Alumni Council, Inman Page Black Alumni Council, and Brown Transgendered, Bisexual, Gay and Lesbian Alumni). Join classmates and friends at this annual event celebrating the achievements of our student and alumni leaders. Enjoy music, student performances, and light refreshments.

Maddock Alumni Center Garden

7 p.m.

Dinner on your own. Make your own plans for dinner with friends in restaurant-rich Providence or enjoy the Brown Bear Buffet at the Sharpe Refectory on campus (see full schedule for buffet details).

9 p.m. – 1 a.m.

Campus Dance. One of Brown's best-loved Reunion Weekend traditions, the Campus Dance brings more than 11,000 people to campus to dance the night away under a sky lit with hundreds of paper lanterns. The College Green is transformed into an outdoor ballroom with a giant dance floor for swinging to the sounds of the Duke Belaire Orchestra. Lincoln Field is set for the young at heart with two of Brown's student bands.

During the Dance, beverage tokens may be purchased in the Blue Room in Faunce House or behind Wilson Hall on upper Lincoln Field. New this year: in the alumni reunion section near Hope College, there will be cocktail service as well as a special boxed dessert for purchase.

The College Green

Saturday, May 23

7:00 a.m. – 9:30 a.m.

Continental Breakfast in our Class Headquarters. All are welcome, whether you are staying on campus or not — a great way to meet classmates and start your day. Compliments of the University.
Class Headquarters

7:30 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Registration under the tent on Wriston for late arrivals. Wriston Quad

8:30 a.m.

Alumni All-Class Memorial Service. Join classmates and fellow alumni for this meaningful ceremony. Each reunion class will have a representative to honor the memory of those who have departed our midst since our last reunion. University Chaplain Janet Cooper Nelson will officiate.
Sayles Hall

9:30 a.m.

NEW

Alumni Hour with the President. Hear President Ruth J. Simmons discuss the Plan for Academic Enrichment and the latest developments at Brown. Lincoln Field

11 a.m. – noon

NEW

Alumni Reunion Forum – Riding the Rapids: Career Management in Today's Economy. The crisis in the global economy has impacted thousands around the world, including members of the Brown alumni family. Join us for a panel discussion of seasoned alumni recruiters, journalists and bloggers to hear their thoughts, insights and suggestions for effective career management in these challenging times. Panelists include: Scott Harris '74, executive vice president/co-managing director, DHR International; Rahsan Lindsay '94, account manager, MTV Networks; Hannah Seligson '04, journalist and author. Moderator: Vicky Oliver, author. W. Duncan MacMillan Hall, Room 115

Noon – 3 p.m.

NEW

Alumni Field Day. Catch up with friends under our class tent at what promises to be the best Field Day ever! For lunch, bring your own or enjoy a hometown Rhode Island picnic of cold fried chicken and a variety of sliders including honey mustard chicken, pulled pork and vegetarian ragout alongside an array of picnic salads. Enjoy your picnic with lemonade and finish with famous Rhode Island doughboys. And don't forget to sample the assortment of beer, sangria, soda, and bottled water at the Field Day cash bar.

Expanded activity options include:

- Bruno Activities Zone for kids of all ages
- Soccer and rugby mini-clinics led by Brown players for 3-18 year olds
- Fencing demonstration led by the Brown fencing team for 5-18 year olds
- Whiffle ball, softball and kickball games for all ages
- Alumni rugby and softball games
- Magic show by Tommy James
- Musical performance by Dave Binder
- Complimentary ice cream

However you define fun, Alumni Field Day promises to be a fun-filled afternoon for everyone. Alumni Field Day is completely free with the exception of the picnic.

If you did not register for the picnic, you may purchase individual-only picnic tickets ($25 per person) at the Field Day gate. Follow signs near Olney-Margolies Athletic Center (OMAC) on Hope Street for access to Field Day. Pets and outside beverages are not allowed on the athletic fields. Erickson Athletic Complex Fields – rain or shine

3:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

NEW

Alumni Reunion Forum – Cue the Music: The Role of Music in Film and Television. Whether a commercial or soundtrack, headline concert or movie, music video or television series, music plays a significant role in many film and television productions. Seasoned alumni share their professional experiences within the music and entertainment industry and discuss their perspectives on the importance of music in various types of productions. Panelists include: Matt Hauser '89, composer, Big Foote Music; Stephen Hill '84, co-president of programming, Black Entertainment Television; Clara Markowicz '94, co-founder, Original Media; Lee Rolontz '84, senior vice president, Original Music Production, VH1.
W. Duncan MacMillan Hall, Starr Auditorium, Room 117

6:15 p.m.

Class Photo. Please plan on being part of this memorable photo, whether you plan to purchase a copy or not.
Sharpe Refectory

6:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.

Class Celebration. Don't miss the chance to continue reconnecting with old friends for this one-of-a-kind event and special night out! Enjoy music, light fare and an open bar at this celebration. Guests welcome. Class Headquarters

Sundown (approx. 8:30 p.m.) – midnight

NEW

WaterFire Providence. Ninety-seven bonfires hover above the surface of the river and thread through the half-mile of downtown Providence's Waterplace Park. Enjoy this spectacular award-winning multimedia fire installation created by artist and alumnus Barnaby Evans '75.

Sponsored by Brown University's Commencement and Reunion offices.
Downtown Providence

Sunday, May 24

7 a.m. – 9 a.m.

Pre-Commencement Procession Breakfast.

All are welcome! Get energized for the day with a complete hot breakfast buffet. Choose from pancakes, eggs, home fries, fruit, muffins, cereal, coffee, juice, and lots more. If you did not register for this breakfast, you may purchase full-price tickets at the door. Sharpe Refectory

9 a.m.

Commencement Procession. One of Brown's oldest and greatest traditions, the Commencement Procession brings together the entire Brown community. This is pure excitement and nostalgia — don't miss your chance to march through the Van Wickle Gates behind our 15th Reunion banner. New this year, classes will be lining up for the procession beginning on the path in front of University Hall and continuing past Rhode Island Hall onto George Street — be sure to look for our 15th Reunion signs and student staff member on George Street.

The College Green

Noon – 2:30 p.m.

NEW

Alumni Grab 'n' Go Lunch. After your return up the Hill, grab lunch as Reunion Weekend comes to an end. The extended hours at your class headquarters will allow you to enjoy the company of your classmates or, if weather permits, have an impromptu picnic on campus. If you did not register for this lunch, you may purchase full-price tickets at the door.
